EASTERN DATES TO MAY 15

THE CIVIL WAR IN FRANCE

The British Parliament

In the House of Lords Earl Russell gave notice of his intention to move an address to the Queen against assenting to the ratification of the Alabama treaty in case the arbitrators are bound by rules or conditions other than the law of nations and English municipal laws existing during the civil war in the United States when the alleged depredations upon American commerce were committed.

Granville defended against the criticisms of Lord Stratheden the results of the recent conference of the Great Powers upon the Eastern question, by which he affirmed that a reasonable settlement of the questions in dispute had been secured. Russia was fully satisfied and all the Powers concerned in the new policy, under which Turkey still retained a stronger naval position in the Euxine than Russia had acquired.

The Marquis of Salisbury replied condemning the action of the Government which he said, like American on the Alabama question, should have waited until the end of the pending struggle and then demanded satisfaction from Russia for its course in reference to the treaty of Paris.

WASHINGTON CITY

Executive Session of the Senate

WASHINGTON, May 15.—In the executive session of the Senate today, after the Senate had duly informed the House that it was ready to proceed with the investigation of the Credit Mobilier, Mr. Conkling, without any recommendation or remark, moved that the Senate proceed to the consideration of executive business.

Mr. Morton explained certain parts of the treaty in regard to questions.

No general debate has yet been opened upon the subject, the proceedings thus far having been merely of a preliminary character. There are speculations as to the result and final vote. The prospect is that the treaty will be ratified.

It is said the Democrats met last night and talked over the subject especially as to the principles of international law involved, and further that instead of Reverdy Johnson being appointed to the treaty, as reported, he earnestly declined the nomination.

The new Territorial Government for Columbia was inaugurated today. A large number being in attendance to witness the proceedings of the organization of the Territorial Assembly. Fred Douglass was elected Vice President of Council, or upper branch.

WASHINGTON, May 15.—The Select Committee on Secret and Improper Relations held a meeting last night and examined five witnesses concerning the publication of the treaty in the New York Tribune. A. W. Adams, correspondent of the Tribune, testified in effect that he had no knowledge of how the copy was obtained, or from whom. White and Ramsdell of the Tribune severally testified that they did not procure it either from a Senator or any officer or employee of the Senate. They however declined to answer questions as to the names of persons from whom it was obtained, and whether they paid money for it. This refusal on their part will be reported to the Senate tomorrow for the action of that body.

Opinion in the Senate on the Treaty

CHICAGO, May 15.—A Washington special to an evening paper says the vote taken in the Senate Foreign Relations Committee today stood six to one in favor of the ratification of the treaty, Casserly being the one voting negative.

NEW YORK, May 15.—A Washington special says the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations are said to stand four in favor and three against the treaty.

CURRENT NOTES

The London Triblet has an article called The Pope the Salvation of the World. This is one step in advance of the Papal infallibility. But even admitting that the Pope is the salvation of the world, the question then remains, What is to save the Pope?

An Indiana paper feels called upon to rebuke the youths and maidens in its town who block up the sidewalk in front of the burglar proof safes where they count up their cash in hand to ascertain if they have a sufficient amount to purchase one glass of soda for each couple.

In New York city last year 27,000 arrests were made. Of those arrested 20,000 were of American birth, 3,000 were Irish and 4,000 were Germans. Considering the large German population of New York city this would indicate that the Germans are much more peaceable than either the native Americans or Irish.

There seems to be little room to doubt that the control of the Suez Canal is likely to pass from France to England or Russia. France has become by Germany so utterly used up that there seems nothing unreasonable in the assumption that she must abandon her position with regard to the canal. Of the other Lower Russia and England are so separated through their interests, and from their positions or purposes in the East, and the remains of offense to take the place of France in the management of the canal.

The Bureau of Statistics in Massachusetts reports that the loss in production by the strike in Fall River was more than $1,200,000, the darkest loss to the operatives about $350,000. What better evidence can we have of the meekness and clumsiness of the whole machinery of strikes? Be their result what it may they are ruinous to both parties while they continue and settle nothing permanently for the future when the difficulty has been temporarily adjusted. There may be a truce but there is no peace. Employer and employed each await the opportunity of being off from the bargain. So much for figuring the great principle of co-operation the only possible solution of the problem.

Dr. Franklin used to wish that he might after a good long nap, live the last half of his allotted years some time in the nineteenth century. His equanimity the greatest with which a great man was ever credited might be a little disturbed if he should wake up just now in Boston. He left by will a small sum of money the income of which was to be lent to young married artificers. This has been invested and reinvested until it now amounts to more than $1,000,000 but no young married artificer has ever been favored with a farthing. Last January effort to lend it on small sums to poor ones for terms to enable the poor to secure a start in life failed in the majority of the city Boards.

Once more we hear of the release of Andy Johnson. Upon the downfall of mobocracy in the city of Nashville he will deliver an oration on "Mechanical Skill and Industry"—not as we believe, simply upon the Art of Tailoring, but upon all arts and sciences including probably the Mystery of Distillation. We have said that the address would be given on the 5th—perhaps it would have been safer to say anything on the 7th and ending whenever the Lord pleases. Mr. Johnson's rhetorical style is that involuted or convoluted kind which takes a long one a great deal easier than stopping and before he ends, his Nashville labor he should engage some kind friend to remove him forcibly from the scene after he has spoken, we will say twenty four hours.

The German press relates the singular story that about a century ago Baron Dietrich Ostrom fell into disfavor with Frederick the Great of Prussia, for the sum of 3,333 3rd thirds ducats. A year ago the last scion of that princely house heir at law to the baron, found among his effects a secret found untouched and carefully preserved the identical 3,333 gold pieces which Frederick the Great had paid to his ancestor.

In the line of pork packing cities of the West Chicago stands first, Cincinnati second, St. Louis third, Louisville fourth, Milwaukee fifth, Indianapolis sixth, St. Joseph seventh, Quincy eighth, Keokuk ninth, Peoria tenth, and Dubuque eleventh.

The Le Peuple states that chemical preparations are ready to annihilate the Versaillists when they assault the ramparts. The Commune announce the repulsion of several attacks of Versailles forces on Monday night. There was a vigorous engagement in the evening, extending from Porte Dauphin to Maillot Gate. Grevy has been re-elected President of the Assembly.

The British Parliament

LONDON, May 16.—In the House of Lords, the army regulation bill came up. A lively discussion ensued. The opponents of the measure were violent in their denunciation of the bill. Cardwell supported the bill. Upon a division of the house there was a majority for the Government of 65.

LONDON, May 17.—Clusseret advises barricades to be put at the Place Royale and Place Vendôme, a second line of defensive works from Passy gate and Grenelle bridge, and a third line from Point Concorde to Sevres gate.

A Standard special says the Versaillists will probably carry the city to night. The Communists are fleeing.

The Republicans presented to the Assembly, on Wednesday, a motion appointing Thiers President for two years. Disturbance is expected.

VERSAILLES, May 17.—The parallels are one hundred metres from the ramparts. The insurgents are greatly disturbed; operations on thirty men were killed in one night.

Dispatch from Florence

FLORENCE, May 16.—The Italian Deputies have adopted a bill compensating Florence for the transfer of the capital.

Turkey is unwilling to conclude any convention with Rome.

WASHINGTON CITY

WASHINGTON, May 16.—The subject of the premature disclosure of the treaty of Washington is more talked of here than any other. The opinion prevails among many Senators and others that the committee, having investigated as to the conduct of senators with reference to the publication of the treaty, have no right to require correspondents to answer further as to the source of their information. It is expected that the Tribune correspondents will be reported to the Senate today and if they refuse to answer questions that body will decide what their punishment shall be.

Gen. Phil Sheridan has arrived.

A telegraphic transfer of a hundred thousand dollars in gold from San Francisco to New York was made today.

Subscriptions to the loan to day up to noon was $3,000.

Internal Revenue receipts today were $760,000.

WASHINGTON, May 16.—President has nominated Nicholas Pell of New York, Assistant Secretary of Legation at Berlin, and W. Barker of Pennsylvania, Consul at Rio.

In the executive session of the Senate today Carpenter made a report from the Committee of investigation into the unauthorized publication of the treaty of Washington. The report gives the testimony of White, correspondent, and J. H. Ramsdell, assistant correspondent of the New York Tribune to the effect that they obtained the treaty from a printed copy and telegraphed it to New York, but refused to tell how or from whom they got it or what they paid. The committee decided that the questions which White and Ramsdell refused to answer were proper ones and recommended the adoption by the Senate of a resolution directing the Sergeant at Arms to arrest them and bring them before the bar of the Senate and detain them for their contempt in the matter and abide such further orders as the Senate may make. An animated debate of five hours ensued after which the resolution of reference to White was adopted by 36 to 1, and that to reference to Ramsdell by 35 to 1. In accordance to the resolution warrants have been issued for the arrest of White and Ramsdell by the Sergeant at Arms.

The treaty was not considered today. The proceedings will be detailed, having occupied all the time of the session.

WASHINGTON, May 17.—Sixteen out of twenty one members of the Select Committee on the Ku Klux outrages, met this forenoon. Senator Scott in the Chair. There are absent two Senators and three Representatives. A sub committee was appointed in compliance with the resolution to inquire into the condition of the late insurrectionary States as far as regards the execution of the laws and the safety of lives and property of citizens and to prepare a plan of proceedings in the discharge of duties imposed upon said Joint High Committee. They submitted the following resolution and recommended its adoption.

Resolved, That for the present seven members be appointed to proceed at once with the investigation unless otherwise ordered and to continue in Washington with power to reassemble the committee when in their judgment it may be expedient. Adjournment took place until today when it is supposed the resolution will be acted upon.

EASTERN STATES

The Erie Railroad

NEW YORK, May 16.—The Sun this morning reports Vanderbilt's purchase of Gould, Fisk & Co.'s interest in the Erie road and says it is now generally believed to be true, though every effort is being made to keep it a secret. It also says a lot of the Pennsylvania Central Jay of the Michigan Central and others, are reported to have made liberal offers for the control of the Erie but Vanderbilt finally succeeded in effecting arrangements by which the road will be reorganized and incorporated with the lines already under his control.

Drought in Illinois

CHICAGO, May 16.—Accounts from the central and a portion of northern Illinois report an unprecedented drought for this season of the year. Vegetation is suffering badly.

Gov. Jewell Inaugurated

HARTFORD, May 16. The Legislature assembled this morning at 10 o'clock. Governor Jewell took the oath of office and read his inaugural address.

The Erie Railway not Sold.

NEW YORK, May 16.—The statement of the sale of the Erie Railway is contradicted today by the managers of the company.

The Atlantic Cable Management

NEW YORK, May 17.—The Post last evening says editorially: The Associated Press accuses the Cable Company of delaying its dispatches to make way for those filed after them. Silence under the circumstances has been regarded as a confession of the truth of the charges and if the charge is true the management of the cable must be reformed for as it is now conducted it can never have public confidence again.

Ku Klux Outrages

NEW YORK, May 17.—The Tribune has a long communication from Columbia, S. C. giving details of an attempt to kill the Republican county officers all of whom however saved themselves by flight or by secreting themselves. The Sheriff subsequently arrested the supposed leader of the gang and he will be tried under the recent Ku Klux law of Congress.

The Herald's special from Shelby, N. C. says arrested Ku Klux appeared before Commissioner Moore yesterday together with eighteen others whose names are not included in the warrant and who voluntarily appeared not having been arrested. The complaining witnesses were not present alleging fear of their lives if they attended. The story was discredited and the Commissioner ordered the witnesses arrested and brought to Shelby to-day. The prisoners seem anxious to have a trial.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., May 16.—Forty masked men entered Pontotoc, Mississippi, last Friday night for the purpose of driving off Col. Forney, editor of a radical paper. They found on a party of citizens who met them and required their purpose when the citizens re-formed the fire wounding one of the maskers. The others fled. The wounded man proved to be a young man who lived near. He persists entirely refused to divulge the names of his comrades and soon died. The next morning a number of persons were found to have left the country.

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco

SAN FRANCISCO, May 16.—The prospect is that this month sales at the Stock Board will reach $15,000,000. Sales at the afternoon Board to day foot up over $750,000.

The name of the proposed Odd Fellow's College Home has been changed to Odd Fellows College of California and the Trustees will meet here on Friday next to incorporate it.

It is feared that in the matter of the gambler arrested Saturday night for playing Kend the Court will decide that it is not a banking game and consequently don't come within the provisions of the law. If this is the case the city will swarm with keno dens immediately.

The Woman's Suffrage Convention has 42 delegates of all sexes in attendance. The committee on permanent organization are Mrs. Stevens, Mrs. Duncan, Miss Smith, Mrs. Palmer, Mrs. Wallace, Rev. W. W. Smith, Rebecca L. Ewing, Virginia Russell, Mrs. Dullon and Mrs. Sloper. It appears to be a very dull affair.

The convention has adopted the following resolution.

Resolved, That the woman suffrage movement asks no one's rights as a public favor, and is designed to secure to the political enfranchisement of women but one principle as war upon religion or any of the established institutions of the country.

After many more last declinations the Convention finally elected the following officers: President, John A. C. Ling; Vice Presidents, Mrs. Palmer, Mr. Smith, Mrs. Hossfield, Mrs. Collins, Mrs. Donnelly, Mrs. Stevens, Mrs. Gordon, Mrs. Eliza Taylor, Secretary, Mrs. Dolbell; Assistants, Mrs. Mary McConnell, Miss Dobbs, Mrs. C. C. Smith, Miss Emma Calhoun, Treasurer, Mrs. Sloper.

The hearing of the petition of the widow and children of the late Horace Hawes for setting aside his will and deeds for the foundation of Eagle College, as having been made while not of sound mind is reserved in Probate Court until the first Monday in September.

The police are on the track of Johnny Devine, alias The Chicken, the pugilist, for the last twenty four hours, it being certain that he was the party who committed the diabolical attempt to murder August Camp near Bay View yesterday after beating him out of $20. This evening officer Coulter corraled him at North Beach and brought him in. His first remark on being arrested was: God damn you you are going to be the means of my being hung. Coulter asked him what he had done and he replied: Why you know we enough that I shot a man. He supposed that his victim was dead. Campbell identified him at once though he had changed his clothes and the law appears to have a death hold on him at last. Devine had one of his hands slashed, that the wrist while running a muck through the city for two years ago, and has been supposed that the cut was received in some affray.

San Francisco, May 17.—Commercial bark Hesperia from Honolulu coffee and sugar for Starr & Co.

Ex Supervisor Phil S. Canovan while sitting in a chair conversing with friends this evening fell to the floor in an apoplectic fit. He received immediate medical attention, and has now recovered consciousness but his condition is critical.

The inquest on the body of the boy Cunningham run over and killed by a horseman named King commenced this evening.

Tragedy at the Umpqua

SAN FRANCISCO, May 17.—Passengers by the steamer Idaho from Eureka to Umpqua report a frightful affair occurring on the trip up to Eureka. There was on board the steamer a family from Indiana consisting of a father, mother and four children, with a young girl of eleven years who was sick on the night before the arrival of the steamer at Umpqua. The steward of the vessel named Smith, a Malay who is married to a white woman living in this city entered the sick child's stateroom, drugged and ravished her. On the child's recovering her senses she identified Smith as the perpetrator of the outrage but he denied it, saying he had only entered the room to close the window. He was tied and on a rival at Umpqua the citizens assembled, tried him and sentenced him to death. He was then placed in a boat and a man selected by lot rowed him up the river out of sight. A pistol shot was heard and the citizen returned alone. Smith was said to be a very quiet man generally and bore a good character, but there was no doubt of his guilt in this case.

Great Railroad Enterprise

SAN FRANCISCO, May 17.—It is rumored on what is believed good authority that preparations are nearly completed for the incorporation of a company to be called the Eastern Extension of the California Pacific Railroad to construct immediately a railroad from Davisville on the California Pacific to Goose Lake, Oregon, thence via Christmas Lake and the southern side of the valley of Snake river to Bear river and thence to a point on the Union Pacific Railroad at or east of Ogden. This road will form a part of a grand combination formed in New York which already controls the Pennsylvania Central, Pittsburg and Fort Wayne, Chicago and Northwestern and Union Pacific roads, and will complete the direct line from New York to San Francisco independent of the Central Pacific. It is reported that the stock is all subscribed for by European capitalists and the construction of the road is positively determined on, work to commence within 60 days. The company will incorporate under the laws of California.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 17.—Captain Francois Langlois of the bark Henry Alexander, which arrived from Honolulu last night died suddenly on ship board, in the harbor. He came out from London a few weeks since and leave a family in the Isle of Jersey.

An investigation into the matter of the poisoning of thirteen large animals in Woodward's Gardens including all of the large animals but one in the place leads to the conclusion that it was the work of a visitor through natural cussedness without any tangible motive. The loss is a very heavy one as the animals were generally fine specimens in their line and some of them cannot be replaced.

Warren O. Bowers has recovered $7,000 damages against the Pioneer Tow Line for injuries received in a collision of one of their barges with the steamer Lurline of which he was engineer.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 17.—Weather clear and cold. Wind northwest.

The shooting by the 1st regiment N. G. C. Col. Barnes commanding, at the excursion today, was remarkably good. The contest for the regimental prize was between the National Guard of this city and the Oakland Guard, the former finally carrying it. The officers target was one of the finest ever made on the coast. Of the first 30 shots fired 29 hit the target. The National Guard carried off the regimental prize, first individual prize and officers' prize. Lt. Vaughan was winner of the latter. The excursion wound up with a review by the Governor.

The remains of the late Lemuel Ivon U. S. Consul at Yokohama were interred in the Masonic cemetery in this city today, the procession to take them to Stockton left here at 1 p. m.

SAN DIEGO, May 16.—An Arizona correspondent at Tucson (May 10th) says that on the 7th inst. at Barkers' Station an attempt was made by Mexican bandits to steal the U. S. mail stage. The attempt was unsuccessful but was followed by the killing of Henry Brandeis the driver. Buck, the driver, kept the murderers at bay with his gun until daylight when they fled. The Stage Co. has made immediate application for assistance from the military authorities. A party of thirty citizens volunteered and started to pursue the murderers.

SAN DIEGO, May 17.—The Arizona Citizen has the following:

TUCSON, May 10.—Reliable news is just received that the troops lately in pursuit of warriors in the engagement last week in Wilcox mountains where Lieut. Cushing was killed, Captains Rowe and Moore are on the trail of the band. Pinal Indians on the 3d of May struck a ranch of Apaches in Final mountains, 8 miles north of Pinal reservation killed five men and took four prisoners. The prisoners admitted that they had been fed at Camp Gowen and were hostile. No stronger evidence is necessary than has been given to show that feed at camps and agencies have been fostering hostile Indians. The rejecting over Stoneman's displacement by Gen. Cook is entirely on the especially because of Cook's assignment. It has inspired new hopes.

THURSDAY MORNING, MAY 18, 1871.

A Boomerang.

"Radical papers have made a great outcry against the profligacy of President Johnson's administration, while at the same time they are unbounded and unceasing in their praise of Gen Grant. But figures show that a much greater reduction of the public debt was made under the administration of the former than the latter." So says the Herald, and that paper produces the figures to prove that $265,595,391 was paid under Johnson's, while only $[illegible] has been paid under Grant. It then quotes from the St. Louis Republican that "Andrew Johnson, in his retirement at Greenville, Tennessee, when he reads this, will be able to laugh at seeing his enemies forced, to bear unwilling tribute to the superiority of his policy over that of his successor."

Now what an exceedingly clumsy attempt is this to convey a false impression by suppressing the truth. Johnson was President four years; Grant has been President but a little over two. In four years under Johnson $265,000,000 was paid, in two years and two months under Grant $223,000,000 was paid. Under Johnson the rate of payment was about $5,500,000 per month; under Grant the rate has been about $9,000,000 per month; and many taxes that were in existence while Johnson was President have been repealed since Grant's Administration began.

Here, then, is the plain statement of fact: With greatly reduced taxation the debt is being diminished nearly twice as fast under Grant as it was with the highest rate of war taxes under Johnson.

Such papers as the Herald, by their clumsy endeavors to suppress the truth, often bear testimony to the efficiency of the present Administration. It has done so signally in this case, and it will be in order for it now to try again. But stay—it had better let this subject alone. When it touches this matter of the reduction of the debt it launches a boomerang that returns with terrific force upon the Democratic head. A safer subject is the old resource—the Chinaman.

Our Railroad System Developing.

We have in the dispatches from California a report of a great railway enterprise which, ... pushed through in accordance with the plan laid down, will be of vast importance to Oregon as well as to California. In an article a few days ago we gave the outline of the plan as now proposed, with a rumor that the enterprise would almost certainly be undertaken, and it is now stated on good authority that the project is not only seriously contemplated, but that it will be commenced at once: the ability of the great corporation known as the Pennsylvania Central Railroad Company to put this work through cannot be questioned. Controlling already a line from New York to Salt Lake, they want a through line to the Pacific ocean. The route they propose is indicated in the telegram elsewhere published. This enterprise will make the original plan of a railroad from the Rogue river valley in connection with a trunk line in the vicinity of Goose Lake easy of consummation. It will also cause the connection of the Columbia river with the Union Pacific to be more easily made. The general plan of our railroad system is now rapidly developing.

A correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial gives a cheerful picture of the state of affairs in Arizona. He thinks that civilization is making progress there because the Apaches now do not hang a man head downward from a mesquit bush, pull his skin off, and bake his brains over a slow fire, at a nearer point than three miles from Tucson; while three years ago the red devils were in the habit of amusing themselves with such pastimes within two miles of the capitol of the Territory. Still, he says, a man who goes to Arizona and gets back alive is compelled to devote the remainder of his natural life to pull the arrows out of him and plugging up the holes in his skin. This correspondent further expresses the opinion that army officers who march eighteen miles a day, with lobster sauce, champagne and canned chickens in their wagons are not likely to achieve brilliant success in catching Apaches who ride eighty miles a day on their fleet, little, tough mustangs, and think nothing of it. Out of a colony of one hundred and thirty-five pioneers who went to Tucson in 1857, nearly every one has been killed by the Apaches. Ninety murders by Indians have been committed in one county in a single year.

If General Crook do not order this matter differently we shall be much mistaken. He will execute the same policy in Arizona that is employed to rid Eastern Oregon of the Indian nuisance and scourge.

Slavery dies hard in Brazil, though the results of our late war materially weakened the institution in the South American empire, and made the slave population uneasy and restless by learning that they alone of the inhabitants of the American continent remained in bondage. The Emperor of Brazil is an arrant emancipationist, and so are many of the leading statesmen. For a year or two past, however, the Conservatives have had a majority in Parliament, and the schemes for gradual emancipation have been postponed. One of these, which provides for the freedom of future generations, leaving in their present condition the present slaves, has received the Imperial support, and, though now held in abeyance is likely to be revived on a change of party predominance. The whole population of Brazil is estimated at 8,397,000, of which 1,902,000 are slaves. In Brazil, however, one is no colorphobia. A black man, if he succeeds in purchasing his freedom or is emancipated, can hope for social position and official honors just as if he were white. Thus, one obstacle which prevents the advancement of the colored race, in the United States does not exist in the empire on the equator. We may, therefore, hope that before the close of the present century emancipation will be begun, if not accomplished, in the most thoroughly peaceful and progressive of the South American States.

There has been some comment on the action of Councilman Hill of the Third Ward in the matter of the city printing. We do not allude to it in order to participate in the controversy, but only to say that while many persons may and doubtless will dissent from Mr. Hill's view of the law in the matter, it seems to us that no unworthy motives should be attributed to him. He has acted, we take it for granted, on reasons that seem sufficient to himself, in pursuance of his ideas of public duty. It is perfectly proper to meet him with arguments to show wherein his interpretation of the law and of legal rights and requirements in the case is wrong; but it seems to us totally unnecessary to reflect on his integrity in the affair.

We learn that there is likely to be considerable competition for the prize offered by the real estate brokers of this city for the best essay on Oregon. The prize is large enough to induce our best writing talent to compete for it, and it may be expected that the successful essay will be a finished production.

Coming to their Senses.

The Memphis Avalanche, a paper which has probably done more to encourage and sustain the Ku Klux than any other paper in the South, has been brought to its senses by the Ku Klux bill. Speaking of the fact that this bill is now a law, it says:

"The people of the South must deal with this great calamity by taking a proper view of its enormity, its power, and its actual existence. Denunciation and threats, made especially by those among us, who have unfortunately got mad too late, and whose fiery zeal blazes out after the battles have been fought and lost, are not the weapons to use to resist or palliate the calamity. The public opinion of the North is, beyond all controversy, at the back of the President, and it is the same power which sustained him and Stanton to crush us at Appomattox Court House.

"There is some sense evinced here. It is encouraging to note that a leading Southern paper has arrived at the conclusion that the loyal masses of the North who put down the rebellion do not propose to abandon the South to the absolute rule of those who led and supported the secession movement. Here is more sense from the same source:

"The great West, to which we look with imploring eyes for help, will give us no aid, no more of kind response than it did in 1862, when the army of Bragg appealed to it from Kentucky. These are bitter, yet true words, but we feel it our duty to write them. We deal with results, not abstractions; facts, not theories.

"Is not a law which brings howling, defiant rebels to their senses in this way, a pretty good thing?"

An Angry, Malignant Crow.

Senator Morton, of Indiana, has recently made several speeches in different places, in which he has exposed in a masterly manner the revolutionary designs still entertained by Northern Democrats, and their ex-rebel allies of the South. He has hurt them terribly, if we may judge from their frothy abuse of him. The Indianapolis Journal thus interprets this abuse:

"Whenever Senator Morton addresses the public upon political affairs he rouses the anger of the Democracy to the highest pitch. One characteristic of Mr. Morton's speeches is, that he never descends to personalities. As he said in his speech at the Academy of Music, it matters little by whom the political affairs of the nation are administered, if they be well administered, and while he wastes no time in denunciation of prominent Democrats, he is merciless in his exposures and castigation of the principles and the designs of the Democratic party.

"The facts stated in his speeches are matters of public history, known and read of all men. His political adversaries do not deny them, they are in a great measure gathered from the public utterances of the Democratic leaders themselves. The conclusions to which he arrives and brings his hearers are, that it would be perilous to entrust the affairs of our nation to a party which is forced to yield its policy to the dictation of the worst men of the South, and that the country can only have repose in continuing the Republican party in power.

"How do the Democracy meet these facts and logic? In no other way than by the foulest personal abuse of the Senator's private character. Decency forbids more than a simple allusion to the manner in which the Democratic press throughout the land befouls itself in its efforts to fling stench-pots at the object of their impotent rage. The same vile crew of libellers hunted Lincoln, and Governor Andrew, and Stanton to their graves with their vile slanders, and a man who bore so important a part as Senator Morton has in the work of putting down the rebellion need not hope to escape their venomous fangs.

Elsewhere we give space for numerous extracts which appeared in the New York World about a year ago, in denunciation of the shameless corruptions of the Tammany gang of New York. These denunciations are from a first class Democratic authority, and serve to show the character of the gang who stand at the head of the Democratic party of the United States, and who will be chief in power at Washington if the Democratic party succeeds in the approaching Presidential election.

THE TERRITORIES.

An old man named Sinclair has disappeared mysteriously from Boise, and it is believed he has committed suicide.

Father Mesplie has returned to Boise City from the East. People of Boise are indebted to him for the retention of the military post there, which the War Department had determined to dismantle and abandon.

On Snake river, above Boise, a few days ago John Leggett was shot and killed by Frank McCoy. Leggett had threatened to kill McCoy. The latter shot him at sight and fled. He has not been heard of since.

The official census returns from Sitka present anything but a pleasant picture of our newly acquired Territory. The number of inhabitants is 391, nearly all of whom are worthless, dirty, poor, etc. One is spoken of as "a rascal in every mouth," another as "worthless wretch," a third as "dirty, blind and destitute," and so on. Only one is mentioned as supporting himself. Clearly Sitka is a missionary field which should by all means be speedily occupied.

The Washington Republican says: Some complaints are now coming into the pension office on account of the dropping from the rolls of the office certain pensioners in the South. These pensioners were placed on the rolls in accordance with the various acts of Congress, and at the close of the war when not obnoxious in the terms of the law which forbade payments of pensions to persons who were "in sympathy with rebellion," the payment of pensions was continued to them. But the officers charged with examining the archives of the rebel Government, found therein a memorial in the Confederate Congress, signed by a number of persons who had, previous to the war, drawn pensions from the United States. These memorialists set forth in their memorial that they were entitled to pensions under what they were then pleased to designate the "so-called United States Government," but that they had abandoned all claim on such Government, and asked pensions at the hands of the rebel authorities. They professed unflinching loyalty to the "Confederate States." This document was at once transmitted to the Commissioner of Pensions, and the names of all the signers forthwith dropped from the rolls, as this document furnished indubitable proof of their "sympathy with the rebellion."

THE THREE DISPEPTICS.—Here is an extract from a letter received by Messrs. Drake & Co. Nov. 2, 1869:—"Three friends met one day in the latter part of last September in their hotel at the Astor House. Your correspondent was one of the three. We were all suffering from the 'national disease'—indigestion; and all agreed on one point, viz: that nothing agreed with us. We discussed medicines. One had tried blue pills, another the extract of dandelion, another every variety of purgatives. In fact we had made apothecaries' shops of our insides; but nothing had done us any good. I said I wondered if your PLANTATION BITTERS would help us any. After some talk we concluded to try it, and meet again at that same place that day month, to compare notes. We did so. It was a jolly meeting, I can tell you. We scarcely knew one another. Each had gained flesh, each reported a good appetite, sound sleep, an easy stomach and a regular habit of body. The change was marvellous. It was agreed to report the facts to you, and I was appointed to make this communication. You can publish it if you choose, and refer all skeptics for particulars to Yours truly, ALBERT W. SHAW, 349 Downing St., New York."

POLITICAL NOTES.

Taxation under the "Ring," in New York, has increased from $1 10 per inhabitant in 1860 to $25 per inhabitant in 1871. That is the sort of "financial reform" which we are invited to make national.

The result of the municipal election on the 2d inst., in Terra Haute, Ind., was in favor of the Republicans by large gains. The Republicans elected all their candidates on the general ticket, and their Councilmen.

Alluding to some favorite Democratic criticisms of the President, the Rochester Express says: "It is wonderful to think that this little man abolished the Southern Confederacy, and it is curious to imagine what would have become of that peculiar institution if a great, ferocious fellow had taken it in hand."

A letter from Kentucky says: The rising man in Kentucky politics now is unquestionably Beck. It is supposed (I do not know how correctly) that John C. Breckinridge, who refuses to have anything to do with current politics, is secretly pushing on his old law partner, and is anxious to see him in the seat in the Senate which he himself abandoned for the love of the dear defunct Confederacy.

A correspondent of the New York Tribune writing about Kentucky politics, says that the hard-shell Democratic element of the State would rather see the Democratic party beaten in the next Presidential race than see the party triumph on a just and national platform which they honestly intended to abide by and enforce. But the Bourbons hope that, after the necessities of the campaign are satisfied, the party, if successful, could be brought to sanction and execute the Bourbon policy.

The Second Quarter of Lessons in Classes commences with the present week. It affords me great pleasure to acknowledge the substantial support of so large a number of patrons. We take pride in subjoining the following testimonial from one of the ablest educators in America, together with that of the entire corps of Normal Teachers with whom we had the great honor to labor.

STATE OF MINNESOTA, FIRST STATE NORMAL SCHOOL, WINONA, April 18, 1871.

It affords me great pleasure to bear testimony to the high personal and professional qualities of Professor J. B. McGibeny, who for two years presided with native acceptance over the Department of Vocal and Physical Culture in this Institution. To a thorough knowledge of the philosophy of Calisthenics and Vocal training possessed by but few, he superadds an enthusiastic devotion to his profession, and an industry surpassed by none. With an experience of more than a quarter of a century in the Normal Schools of this country, in whose courses of study Vocal Music has occupied a prominent position, I do not hesitate to say that I have never met with the peer of Professor McGibeny as an instructor in this department.

I commend him and his excellent wife, who also possesses rare powers as a teacher and musician, to the confidence of all who can appreciate the value of a true and rational mode of culture for the children and youth of our country. WM. F. PHELPS, Principal.

I heartily concur in the above. C. C. CURTISS, Dep't of Accounts.

The undersigned Teachers in the First State Normal School of Minnesota, also concur in the foregoing testimonial of Professor Phelps.

An ordinance entitled An Ordinance to Quiet the Title to Certain Public Property, came up on its first reading, proposing to pay T J Carter and O P Mason the sum of $13,900 for the six Park blocks and two fractional blocks south of Mill street The blank was filled with $13,900 by the following vote Ayes—Besser, Congle, Drake, Hall, and Moffett—5. Nays—Breck, Cree, Hallock—3

Pending the motion to adopt the ordinance a warm discussion arose as to the propriety of stopping all proceedings at law to recover these blocks, Mr Hallock contending that they had once been donated to the city by Coffin, Mr Breck believing it to be an imposition, and feeling confident that from the character of the men to whom this money was paid they would not take so much less than the property was worth if they felt confident of winning the suit Mr Hill and Mr Drake both favored the passage of the bill, believing it important that the city should make the purchase The whole history of the dedication of Park street was reviewed and the question being finally taken the ordinance was laid on the table for one week

An ordinance, in relation to sprinkling streets, was laid on the table

An ordinance, to regulate the cost of keeping the city prisoners, was laid on the table

An ordinance, providing for the improvement of Montgomery street, was laid over

QUESTIONS ANSWERED

The following questions from members and subordinate lodges were reported back with answers by the committees to whom they had been referred

Question 1 Is it the duty of a brother who has cast a black ball, to inform the N G of the cause or ground thereof, when in doing so he would be compelled to divulge some Government or family secret, or the secret of some other society, thereby causing injury to himself?

Answer—No member should be required to disclose the fact of his having cast a black ball against a candidate Adopted

Question 3—Is it proper for the N G of a subordinate lodge, after Representatives to the Grand Lodge have been elected, to direct the R S not to issue the necessary credentials to P G's who are not clear on the Lodge books?

Answer—P G s, to be eligible to seats in this body, must be in good standing in their Lodge and the Lodge should withhold certificates to P G's unless they are in good standing Adopted

Question 8—Is the regalia of a sitting P G different from the regalia of a P G? If so, in what particular?

Answer—There is no difference Adopted

Question 9—Can a member of a subordinate Lodge, after having been notified and read a first and second time in open Lodge, as the laws provide, estop further action of his Lodge by paying a part or even the whole of his dues? Or is it not the duty of the N G to declare that such member has ceased membership for non payment of dues, notwithstanding that a part or the whole of his dues have been paid, provided such payment has been made after the second reading in open Lodge?

Answer—A brother may estop proceedings at any time before he is declared as having ceased membership in his Lodge, by the payment of the amount standing against him on the books of the Lodge A partial payment will not estop proceedings Adopted

Question 10—When a brother applies for a withdrawal or traveling card, does the Lodge vote on the same, and if so, do they vote by the usual sign, or by ballot, and does the brother making application remain in the Lodge room while the vote is taken?

Answer—Withdrawal cards must be granted by ballot visiting cards, by the usual sign majority vote necessary in granting such cards The applicant may be present during the vote Adopted

Guizot.

THE EX-MINISTER OF LOUIS PHILIPPE ON THE PRESENT STATE OF FRANCE.

The following communication from M. Guizot to the London Times will be read with interest at the present time:

I think I may venture to say that no one can see the faults of my country more clearly than I do; no one can condemn them more utterly; the faults of France cause me even more sorrow than her misfortunes. But I never lose faith in her good qualities, although they may seem to be obliterated by the faults, and I am sure that the good which is in her will open up infinite resources even when her prospects are darkest.

Seven months ago France suddenly found herself without a Government and without an army. In this disaster it was Paris that saved the honor of France. And now Paris has met with her own disaster. The glory of the siege is followed by the disgrace of falling under the dominion of a violent and incapable mob, and becoming a prey to a detestable and absurd outbreak of demagogic fury. I must acknowledge that this has caused me more sorrow than surprise, for I have had experience of revolutionary crises and masses. I know how my country falls into them, and also how it finds a way out again. I will not say how many revolutions France has originated or endured since 1789, but she has always redeemed herself, and more than once with honor. I have never for one moment ceased to hope that she will shake herself free from the present revolution.

But in this crisis there are two remarkable facts which we must not overlook. The revolution is not general, and it does not spread. Attempts to imitate Paris have not been wanting. We have seen them at Lyons, Marseilles, St. Etienne, Narbonne and Toulouse. They have all failed, and have been suppressed in two or three days, without any great effort. The National Assembly elected during the crisis is the very reverse of revolutionary, and the French nation evidently identifies itself and sympathizes with the National Assembly. Paris alone remains in a state of the national feeling, and has resigned herself to the will of an anarchical faction.

And yet, just call to mind what Paris has recently done and suffered. For five months she endured a siege without parallel among the great cities of Europe. During the siege every passion, good as well as evil, was violently excited, and the populace was influenced by all, indiscriminately. Then again, all classes, rich and poor, wise and foolish, the Faubourg St. Antin and the Faubourg St. Marceau as Montmartre and Belleville were united side against the enemy, Moreover, the civil and military classes were united. They fought and suffered together, and the passions of each class were known to the other.

The siege is over; war with the Prussians is still ended. No. We pass immediately from foreign to civil war. Troops of the line and the National Guard who remained in Paris expected to fire upon the men who have been fighting at their side against the Prussians. Many true and loyal citizens have hesitated to obey this command, and their hesitation has emboldened and at the same time irritated the lawless and insurgent element. During the siege the loyal citizens fought much more bravely than the disloyal, but after the siege they found their opponents resolute and bold, while they were undecided and timid. This sudden transition and the consciousness of their duty were too much for them. Evil passions and false theories flourished, grew confident and became aggressive; but the true friends of order and liberty could not see that it was their duty to turn immediately against the new enemies who had formerly been their companions in arms.

I pray you, sir, to notice that I am not offering any excuse for this weakness and hesitation. I am explaining it. It is more natural and more susceptible of explanation in this case than it has been in our previous revolutionary crises. The Prussians are impeding for the re-establishment of peace and order. They are astonished to find the loyal part of the population of Paris supine and irresolute in the presence of the follies and crimes of the disloyal faction. They would leave Paris, alone and unaided, to defend herself from civil war, since it was Paris which had so recently set the example of energetic resistance to a foreign enemy. It would, indeed, have been a glorious achievement, but it was too much to hope for.

The National Assembly which was elected by the provinces has had a truer insight and shown more justice to Paris. It saw that Paris was placed in a very difficult and complicated position, and, therefore, had patience and allowed the city to feel the weight of the tyranny which oppresses it, and to work out its own release if it could and dared. Seeing Paris irresolute, the Assembly has now determined to help it. The decision has certainly not been formed very promptly, nor without considerable hesitation; but the Assembly found itself also in a difficult and painful position. Was it absolutely the first duty of the National Assembly to attack Paris on the question of honor? The Assembly took time and gave every one time—army as well as nation—to see the actual condition of things and to rally and unite in order to resist internal anarchy, that worst and most dangerous form of evil which has befallen us when a great foreign war was scarcely ended.

I will not pause to discuss measures in detail, to criticise omissions or delay to point out the faults which may have been committed at Versailles. On the whole the National Assembly and Executive have acted with intelligence, prudence and justice. And now, driven to the last extreme by the folly, crime and madness of the insurgents, it opposes them with energy, and has resolved to put an end to the revolution which oppresses Paris; and to render the guilty authors of it powerless. A new and loyal army has gathered round the representatives chosen by France, and gallantly obeys their orders and those of the generals in command. The first efforts of this army have already been crowned with success.

How long will this deplorable struggle last? No one can say. But we trust that it will be short, and we feel confident that the result is certain and will be decisive. I am anxious that England should form a just estimate of our position and the difficulties which it presents, and shall be much obliged to you, sir, if you will give me an opportunity of making them known and understood.

The Ku Klux in Florida.

BY TELEGRAPH: VICTIMS—FIVE REPUBLICANS MURDERED IN THREE MONTHS.

[From the Tallahassee (Fla.) Gazette, May 2.]

Senator Rusling handed us yesterday the following letter, just received from his former clerk at the Pension Agency here, which speaks for itself. Mr. Jay has been in Florida only about three months, but he already reports five murders by the Ku Klux—all Republicans. Ere this he will learn that Congress has already acted, and we trust the Ku Klux bill will be rigidly enforced, at all hazards and at whatever cost. Our readers will remember that in a letter which we published from Mr. Jay, written a short time after his arrival among the Floridians, he expressed considerable skepticism as to the existence of Ku Klux, and gave it as his opinion, founded upon his experience and observation, that a Northern man who went South and attended to his own business and comported himself like a gentleman, would always be well treated. The radical change of sentiment which a longer stay, and a more intimate knowledge of Southern society has produced, is very significant:

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., April 26, 1871.

MY DEAR GENERAL: Another one of our band has just been killed. Hon. John P. Mahoney was assassinated at Lake City this morning. He was a young, ardent Republican, a member of the Legislature from Columbia county. He was my personal friend, possessing many noble qualities. Congress must pass a strong Ku Klux bill, or we have no safety. This makes the fifth murder since I came here, all Republicans.

Very truly yours, HAMILTON JAY.

GEN. JAMES F. RUSLING, Trenton, N. J.

"Ef I had been eatin' dried apples for a week, an' den took to drinkin' for a monf, I couldn't feel more awell'd up dan I am dis minnit wid pride and vanity at seein' such a full 'tendance har dis evenin'," said a colored preacher in Louisville.

A Battle With Beans.

From the Washington Chronicle.

The average criticism of the Democratic press on the Administration is ridiculously petty.

When we point with pride to the reduction of the national debt by more than two hundred millions of dollars, our opponents gravely reply: "But your President smokes everlastingly."

When we point with patriotic exultation to the great fact, unexampled in history, that this Administration has carried a nation from the prostration of an expensive and destructive war, without bankruptcy or serious business disaster, to a sound financial condition and to rapidly recuperating prosperity, we are overwhelmed with the answer that the President has retained some of his army friends as his confidential secretaries.

When we point out the fact that a much larger revenue than ever before has been collected on reduced rates of taxation, through honest, diligent and faithful work by revenue officers, we are met with the crushing rejoinder that one or more of these efficient officers may be second cousins of the President.

When we point to the Indian policy, which, by averting war and massacre, has saved hundreds of lives of American citizens and millions of dollars of expenditure, we are set back by the oracular affirmation that the recent visit of the President to Missouri had more of politics in it than of business. And so on to the end of the long chapter.

The very pettiness and whimsical absurdity of these criticisms strikingly illustrate the truth, that in the weighty matters of official duty the Administration cannot be successfully attacked. Unable to make impression on the solid ramparts the enemy stand off and throw beans at the commander.

TURKEY AND RUSSIA IN THE BLACK SEA.—In the race which will now take place between Russia and Turkey to get the upper hand in the Black Sea, Turkey will, it is to be feared, drop astern for want of money. However, the intentions of the Porte are energetic enough. It is proposed to fortify Batoum and Sinope, make good harbors at both places, and establish a naval arsenal at the latter port. Russia has decided on fortifying Soukoum Kaleh, and building a port there. Soukoum Kaleh is scarcely 80 miles from Batoum, and the two fortresses will confront each other across the bay of Colchis, which, as far as I know, has no name in modern geography, and on the extreme points of which stands respectively Soukoum Kaleh and Batoum, Pati lying in between. The Russian theory is that fortifications are necessary to protect the trade of Pati, which Russia has nursed and nourished with the most assidious care ever since the Crimean war, and which, by the old roads, a railway, frequent steam communication with Odessa, harbor accommodation, and shipping facilities, is growing space, and to a great extent at the expense of Trebizond. Batoum, when fortified, will serve to protect such commercial crumbs as Trebizond may gather under the table of richer Pati; and some day, in the sweep of the bay that divides the two new fortresses, will take place, probably, the deadly struggle in which Turkey will wrestle for her life, and Russia for clause nine of the will of Peter the Great. Artillery drill with heavy rampart guns has been going on for the last few days in the Arsenal of Tophanch. —Constantinople Corres. (March 12) London Daily News.

NOT VERY COMPLIMENTARY.—A member of the High Commission, who was in conversation the other day with a young lady, remarked that he had seen some very fine looking ladies in this country, but failed to see any good looking gentlemen. The lady inquired if there were any good looking gentlemen in England. "Oh, yes," he replied, "very fine." "Well, then," said the young lady, "it is a wonder they did not send out some on the High Commission!"
